DRIFT SPECIAL

#287

CDRIFT STING

Welcome to CDRIFT
I'm GH, and tonight

a celebration of music-making on Planet Earth - an uninterrupted journey beginning here & going north through Asia, across the former Soviet Republics to Finland, then down the Danube to the Black Sea, From there, we'll head back toward the Indian Subcontinent, then returning to the Persian Gulf, into Africa up the Nile. After a circuit of Africa, we'll cross the Straits of Gibraltar, go north through the UK and cross to Canada moving south through the Americas. So for the next 90 minutes on PBS "A World without Frontiers";

a new collage for radio, and a Continental Drift special. Piano Feel free to call during the program. The number 537 2433

ASAPRIS Radio Collage from 2:00

For the last 90 minutes you've been listening to a C-Drift Special called "A World without Frontiers" - A collage of 59 different recordings to celebrate the splendor & diversity of music-making on Planet Earth. I trust you haven't worn out your fingertips, tracing them around the pages of an atlas.

The program was produced by myself Garry Harrillouy & I hope you've enjoyed the ride.

If you'd like a complete list of recordings that made up tonight's musical collage, send <sup>a brief note &</sup> a stamped self-addressed envelope to Continental Drift, PBS-FM, PO Box 210 St. Kilda 3182

I'll be back next Sunday night at 10:30 with music from the legendary Egyptian singer Om Kalsoum, plus the spellbinding polyrhythmic music of the AKA Pygmies of Central Africa, & much more. Hope you can join me then.

Bye for now.
